DATA PROTECTION ACT INFORMATION FOR PATIENTS

We need to hold personal information about you on our Computer System and in paper records to help us look after your health needs, and your doctor is responsible for their accuracy and safe-keeping. Please help us to keep your record up-to-date by informing us of any changes to your circumstances

Doctors and staff in the practice have access to your medical records to enable them to do their jobs. From time to time information may be shared with others involved in your health care, if it is necessary. Anyone with access to your record is properly trained in confidentiality issues and is governed by both a legal and contractual duty to keep your details private.

All information about you is held securely and appropriate safeguards are in place to prevent accidental loss.

In some circumstances we may be required by law to release your details to statutory or other bodies, for example if a court order is presented, or in case of public health issues. In other circumstances you may be required to give written consent before information is released – such as for medical reports for insurance purposes or solicitors requests etc.

To ensure your privacy, we will not disclose information over the telephone or fax unless we are sure that we are talking to you. Information will not be disclosed to family, friends or spouses unless we have prior written consent, and we do not leave messages with others.

You have the right to see your records if you wish. Please ask at reception if you would like further details. An appointment will be required. In some circumstances a fee may be payable
